

Internet using Internet Explorer

Objectives

At the end of this course you will be able to connect to the internet and thus have the ability to find out just about everything you want to know.

Description

This course will teach you how to connect to the internet and use a variety of search engines such as the most popular one i.e. Google.

You will learn how to create your favourites list and will be able to access your emails on computers other than your own.

It will open the door to such things as internet banking .cheap air fares, Trademe and much much more.

Prerequisites

Basic keyboard skills are required for this course together with familiarity with keyboard and mouse functions.